

BLATEK

ULTRASONIC TRANSDUCERS

A trusted independent developer and manufacturer of ultrasonic transducers from 2 KHz to 50 MHz.

Nestled in Central Pennsylvania is one of the world's largest producers of ultrasonic transducers.

At the heart of every ultrasonic transducer is a piezo crystal. Dr. Xuecang Geng, Blatek's owner and chief scientist, is renowned for his work in the field of piezocomposites. His intrinsic choice of piezocomposite materials differentiates Blatek products and makes them superior to others. His dedicated team constantly employs innovative solutions to build transducers optimized for broad bandwidth, maximum sensitivity, and low signal-to-noise-ratio.

HIGH PERFORMANCE. START TO FINISH.
